Learn more about institutions that offer generous financial aid and/or merit-based scholarships. Many schools do not consider family income/financial assets in the admissions process. You will fill out the Common Application, complete the brag sheet, narrow your college list, and connect with schools virtually. This pairs well with the Personal Essay-Writing for Out-of-State Applications Workshop on June 8-9 and June 11-12 from 10am-12pm, and the Liftoff to College workshop in late July.

Liftoff to College Application Workshop

Open to current Juniors/Class of 2021

July 27th - 31st from 10am-Noon and 1-3 pm

Complete this Form: Form

Students attending this workshop will complete all in-state applications and attend information sessions from both public and private in-state universities and community colleges. Our goal is for you to have completed all of your in-state applications before the first day of school!
