What?

Ethics

Truly worthy - An ethical person who people can count on to get a job done.

Kind - An ethical person should have a good nature, always treating people with respect and well wishing.

Steadfast - An ethical person should not sway from his or her beliefs.

Fair - An ethical person should not show bias outside what is kind.

Aware - An ethical person should be alert to any and all circumstances that could affect him or her.

Why?

Rules that guide you to the right things.

Pov:

• Pertaining to or dealing with morals or the principles of morality.