Do you think the solution was fair?

- Students loved listening to music.
- School officials banned music.
- A parent complained.
- Music ban started a national debate.
- Superintendent supported the ban.
- Students protested.
- Said music aspires to free students.
- Confronted students.

Officials held a meeting.
- Restrictions on music were scaled back.
- The controversy made people think about both sides of the issue.

- How would you feel if this happened on Bostron campus?

Who or What? Point of View? (blue)