

Carl Hayden Community High School Library

How to Access PUHSD Research Databases

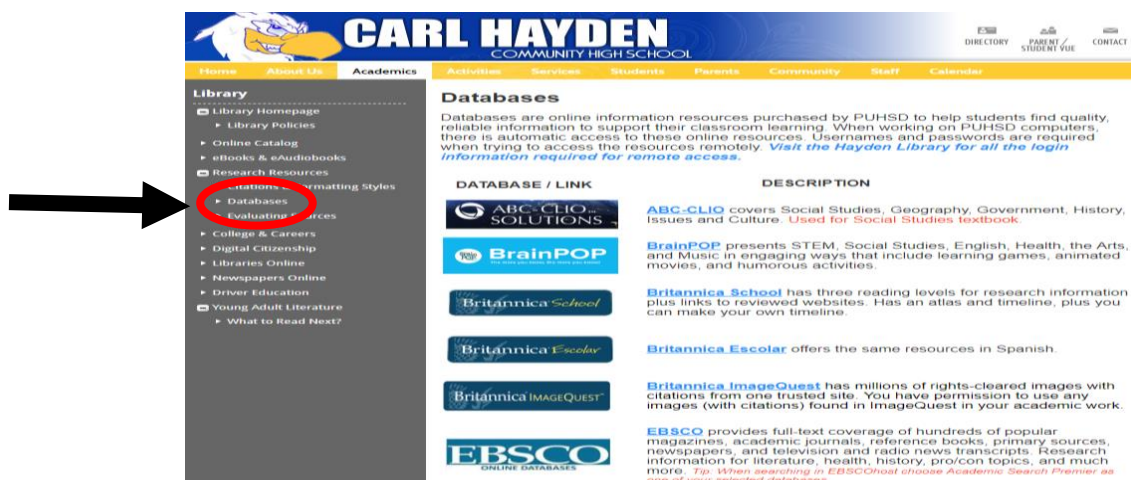

Falcons, work smarter, NOT harder! You won't waste time searching or creating your own MLA and APA formatted citations if you start with these quality, reliable databases, provided by PUHSD, all selected to support your classroom learning.

ABC-CLIO	Covers Social Studies, Geography, Government, History, Issues and Culture. Used for Social Studies textbook.
BrainPOP	Presents STEM, Social Studies, English, Health, the Arts, and Music in engaging ways that include learning games, animated movies, and humorous activities.
Britannica	Online encyclopedia plus copyright-free images (Britannica ImageQuest), animations, news articles, and much more. Also available in a Spanish edition.
EBSCO	Online articles and images from popular magazines, scholarly journals, current newspapers, and other reference works.
Gale Online Resources	In-depth, authoritative, full-text reference books online. Includes Global Issues in Context, GREENR, Interactive Science, Literature Resources Center, Power Search, and Student Resources in Context.
Gale Test Prep - TERC – Testing and Education Reference Center	Test preparation for ACT, ASVAB, PSAT, SAT, AP (Advanced Placement), practical exams, career tests plus much more available.
Infobase Videos	Provides collections with award winning digital reference content to schools and libraries. Search by standards for streaming video.
Proquest: Academic Videos Online and SIRS Knowledge	The largest library-oriented video database in the world. Also, trending social issues presented in Pro/Con viewpoints with critical thinking questions, timelines, and more.
Teen Health and Wellness	Online articles on topics such as diseases, addictive substances, nutrition, mental health, suicide, bullying, green living, financial literacy, and more.
Visual Thesaurus	Interactive dictionary and thesaurus to help students understand complex information and enhance their literacy skills.
World Book	Timelines (World Book Timelines), articles, biographies, images, videos, maps, recommended websites, and much more. Also available in a Spanish edition.

1. Open a web browser, go to <https://www.phoenixunion.org/hayden> and click on the orange Library Resources tab on the left side.

- From the Hayden Library homepage, click the Databases link on the left side. Select the best database for your information needs. Access at school is automatic and remote access requires logins with usernames and passwords. Visit the Hayden Library to get a list of the usernames and passwords needed to access these resources from home.

TIP 1: Are you new to database searching?
Use GALE Student Resources in Context - "The Apple Database."

TIP 2: Are you doing Social Studies or Senior Capstone research?
Use ABC-CLIO (the PUHSD Social Studies textbook), Global Issues in Context, or World Book Timelines.

TIP 3: Are you interested in watching instructional videos?
Use either Infobase or ProQuest AVON – Academic Video Online.

TIP 4: Do you need practice tests for exams like ACT, AP, ASVAB, PSAT, and SAT?
Use GALE TERC – Testing and Education Reference Center.

TIP 5: Do you need high quality images with ready-made APA and MLA citations?
Use Britannica ImageQuest.

