

How to Access Free Newspapers Online

PXU Library Services and Resources for Students and Staff

Free access to the online editions of local, national, and international newspapers is available using the PXU databases. When working on school computers, there is automatic access to these online resources. Usernames and passwords are required when trying to access the resources remotely. Visit your high school library for all the login information required for remote access.

Gannett Newspapers: The Arizona Republic and USA Today

Open a web browser and go to the Cesar Chavez High School website.

Select either the Arizona Republic icon or the USA Today icon from the resources list.

Usernames and passwords for the Gannett newspapers are listed above the icons.

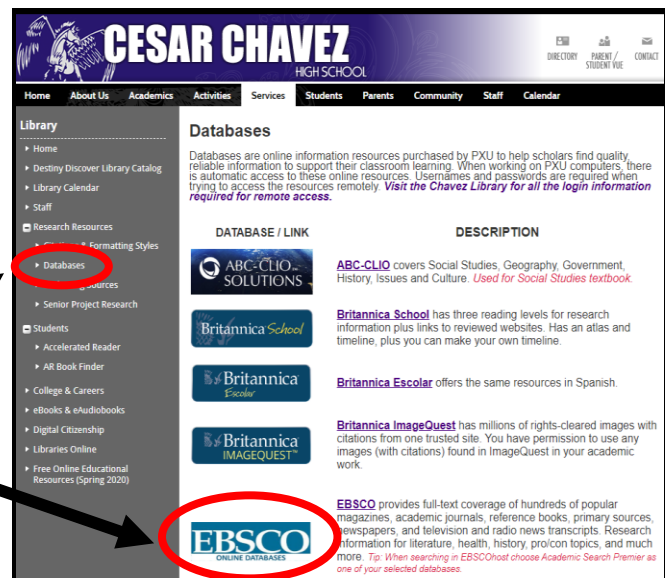

PXU Databases: EBSCO – Newspaper Source

Open a web browser and go to the Cesar Chavez High School website.

Select the EBSCO icon from the databases list.

From the EBSCO homepage, select EBSCOhost Web, which is towards the top, in the middle.

Scroll down to Newspaper Source. Select Title List to search for specific newspapers. Make sure that the newspaper you choose is available in HTML Full Text.

PXU Databases: World Book – World Newspapers

Select World Book Online from the list of databases, then click on the Advanced World Book icon.

World Book Online Encyclopedia covers everything with access to three reading levels- Kids, Student, Advanced. Hundreds of thousands of easy-to-understand articles, captivating images, original videos, integrated primary sources, and eBooks. Plus seamless article translations in more than 100 other languages.

From the Advanced World Book homepage, select Research Resources in the upper, right corner.

From the Research Resources menu (towards the bottom), click on World Newspapers. Choose a location to view newspapers from around the world.
